

The Priyani de Silva-currie Emerging Asset Management Professional Scholarship 2023

Applications invited for 2023

About the Scholarship

The Emerging Asset Management Professional Scholarship will provide the opportunity to complete the Australasian Professional Certificate in Asset Management Planning and Integrating Asset Management Governance courses up to the value of $5,000. These courses will set the winner up for attaining CPAM certification with the World Partners in Asset Management.

This annual scholarship provides the opportunity for an IPWEA NZ member to develop the skills and expertise necessary to enhance their asset management capability. Preference will be given to applicants of ethnic/cultural and gender or other groups who are poorly represented in the asset management profession.

Closing Date: Friday 31 March 2022

All applications must be submitted via this online form.

Content of application:

- A curriculum vitae (tailored CV to confirm roles, responsibilities and professional development).
- Two written references in support of the application (referees may be contacted).
- 300 word statement on why you should be chosen, and how the Emerging Asset Management Professional Scholarship will benefit you and your career in Asset Management. Please address the criteria below.
